The submission of this declaration is voluntary. It is required if an exception to the general liability to pay taxes is to be determined.

The accommodation fiscal charge must be deducted by the accommodation provider in the absence of a declaration.

In accordance with § 2 Paragraph 1 of the abovementioned rules, the costs of the option of providing accommodation at a charge in the city of Königswinter are subject to the accommodation fiscal charge.

In accordance with § 2 Paragraph 4 of these rules, there is an exception from taxation for the costs for accommodation in particular when the accommodation is urgently required for professional reasons. This is the case if the profession, commercial activity or self-employment cannot be exercised without the accommodation that is provided at a charge (urgent business-related reasons).

The city of Königswinter is entitled in accordance with the provisions of the rules (in particular § 12 Paragraph 3) and the German Tax Code to request evidence of all fiscal charges.

Having taken note of this regulation and the criminal liability of providing false information in a tax assessment procedure, I hereby declare truthfully and to the best of my knowledge and belief:
